

PROGRAMS DEPARTMENT
HOUSING COUNSELING & FAIR HOUSING RESOURCES

Housing Counseling & Fair Housing Resources

Housing discrimination is illegal throughout the state of Connecticut. It is against the law to deny anyone housing based on race, color, national origin, sex, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, or family status. The following agencies provide assistance to individuals who feel they may be a victim of housing discrimination as well as provide information about individuals' rights and responsibilities under the fair housing laws in Connecticut.

Bridgeport	Hartford
Bridgeport Fair Housing Office 999 Broad Street Bridgeport, CT (203) 576-8323	CT Fair Housing Center 221 Main Street Hartford, CT (888) 247-4401

The CT Housing Finance Authority has approved the following agencies to assist families struggling with their mortgage payments to explore all foreclosure prevention options available to them.

Bridgeport	Stamford
Bridgeport Neighborhood Trust 570 State Street Bridgeport CT 06604 (203) 290-4255	Urban League of Southern CT 46 Atlantic Street Stamford, CT 06901 (203) 327-5810